

Hailstorm for Milarepa (writing in progress describing the figurative motifs on the sculpture)

The dancing demon carrying a small mountain? in the Hemis festival

a rare white waratah

A rare white Tiger at Mogo Zoo?

on it ride two Dakinis JM (as a medicine Buddha) and JB whose spirits triumph over adversity.

A musician plays (C.W)

A thinker rests and contemplates ways of life in his cave (J.v.S)

A tea leaf lady in the crinoline an apparition in a tea cup read by a poet.

Jenny Orchard carries her hybrid plant/animal creature up a staircase

The gold nuggets from the Holterman lease are displayed on a red tablecloth (after a photograph)

I thought I could see an Aboriginal man wearing a possum skin cloak standing with a group of European men at a gold mine when I watched the black and white photographic projection in the Hill End Museum display

Absent beings

the skull necklace of the Goddess Kali propitiates the nature spirits

The hailstones of a vengeful hailstorm caused by Milarepa before he became a student of Marpa