

Tin Sheds Gallery

Replacements: other drawing, reveries of the everyday

Opening Friday 24th April, 6-8pm

Exhibition 28th April –16th May 2009

bowering

falemaka

holley

kempson

mcmahon

orchard

rupert

sparke

von sturmer

warburton

Investigates drawing as a form of creative exposition and improvisational thought that replaces, informs, runs parallel to, and exists within other creative practices.

Replacements other drawing includes creative practices of architect, weaver, dance costumer, printmaker graphic artist, painter, sculptor ceramist, designer, singer, composer, poet, writer, visual artist.

Other drawing explores crossovers with these other practices that are reflected in the work of the participants: Theodora Bowering, Sione Falemaka, Fiona Holley, Michael Kempson, Marie McMahon, Jenny Orchard, Nura Rupert, Tania Sparke, John von Sturmer, Toni Warburton (curator).

These participating artists engage with and reflect on connections, continuities and possibly disruptions between their particular drawing practices and their other creative practices. They may also engage with innovations and/or collaborations that could arise from the exhibition project.

other drawing artists will host and contribute to a series of dialogues, improvised actions, performances.

3pm- 4pm:

Saturday 2nd May: improvisations

Saturday 9th May: text and conversation

Saturday 16th May: implications of the body

For additional information and images, contact Gallery Manager, Anita Lever 02 93513115.

Top image: Tanya Sparke
birdship_blue amazon. collage

Second image: Jenny Orchard
Detail image. 'Creature of consequence' 2007